PATHWAYS - Global Studies

Bachelor of Science in Global Studies

COURSE SELECTION

FRESHMAN

- GSHS 2000: Introduction to Global Studies

SOPHOMORE

- Choose your Minor; required for degree program

JUNIOR

- GSHS 3000: Global Studies lecture series

SENIOR

- GSHS 4920: Global Studies Internship, GSHS 5000: Global Studies Capstone

ASK FOR ASSISTANCE

- Meet regularly with your academic advisor and consult them when you have concerns about admission to particular classes or need more information about class requirements.

GAIN EXPERIENCE

- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume (handshake.auburn.edu).

- Attend Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Begin preparation for your required global internship. Work with your academic advisor and the College of Human Sciences Global Education Office to coordinate your experience.

- Explore the city and company you would like to work for internship placement and post-graduation employment.

- Ask Career Services & Cooperative Education for help in updating your résumé and preparing for job interviews.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

GET INVOLVED

- Participate in Beat BAMA Food Drive.

- Join organizations related to your major such as Global Studies Club, Universities Fighting World Hunger, ONE, and/or International Justice Mission.

- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.

- Pursue leadership roles in the student organizations in which you participate.

- Kappa Omicron Nu is a national honor society for the human sciences. If invited, join.

- If given the opportunity, join the Sigma Lota Rho Honor Society.

- Phi Kappa Phi is a national organization that recognizes academic excellence. If invited, you may consider joining.

- Connect with AU alumni and stakeholders to enhance professional opportunities.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Explore Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Attend Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Begin preparation for your required global internship. Work with your academic advisor and the College of Human Sciences Global Education Office to coordinate your experience.

- Explore the city and company you would like to work for internship placement and post-graduation employment.

- Ask Career Services & Cooperative Education for help in updating your résumé and preparing for job interviews.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Participate in Beat BAMA Food Drive.

- Join organizations related to your major such as Global Studies Club, Universities Fighting World Hunger, ONE, and/or International Justice Mission.

- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.

- Pursue leadership roles in the student organizations in which you participate.

- Kappa Omicron Nu is a national honor society for the human sciences. If invited, join.

- If given the opportunity, join the Sigma Lota Rho Honor Society.

- Phi Kappa Phi is a national organization that recognizes academic excellence. If invited, you may consider joining.

- Connect with AU alumni and stakeholders to enhance professional opportunities.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Explore Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Attend Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Begin preparation for your required global internship. Work with your academic advisor and the College of Human Sciences Global Education Office to coordinate your experience.

- Explore the city and company you would like to work for internship placement and post-graduation employment.

- Ask Career Services & Cooperative Education for help in updating your résumé and preparing for job interviews.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Participate in Beat BAMA Food Drive.

- Join organizations related to your major such as Global Studies Club, Universities Fighting World Hunger, ONE, and/or International Justice Mission.

- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.

- Pursue leadership roles in the student organizations in which you participate.

- Kappa Omicron Nu is a national honor society for the human sciences. If invited, join.

- If given the opportunity, join the Sigma Lota Rho Honor Society.

- Phi Kappa Phi is a national organization that recognizes academic excellence. If invited, you may consider joining.

- Connect with AU alumni and stakeholders to enhance professional opportunities.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Explore Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Attend Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Begin preparation for your required global internship. Work with your academic advisor and the College of Human Sciences Global Education Office to coordinate your experience.

- Explore the city and company you would like to work for internship placement and post-graduation employment.

- Ask Career Services & Cooperative Education for help in updating your résumé and preparing for job interviews.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Participate in Beat BAMA Food Drive.

- Join organizations related to your major such as Global Studies Club, Universities Fighting World Hunger, ONE, and/or International Justice Mission.

- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.

- Pursue leadership roles in the student organizations in which you participate.

- Kappa Omicron Nu is a national honor society for the human sciences. If invited, join.

- If given the opportunity, join the Sigma Lota Rho Honor Society.

- Phi Kappa Phi is a national organization that recognizes academic excellence. If invited, you may consider joining.

- Connect with AU alumni and stakeholders to enhance professional opportunities.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Explore Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Attend Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Begin preparation for your required global internship. Work with your academic advisor and the College of Human Sciences Global Education Office to coordinate your experience.

- Explore the city and company you would like to work for internship placement and post-graduation employment.

- Ask Career Services & Cooperative Education for help in updating your résumé and preparing for job interviews.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Participate in Beat BAMA Food Drive.

- Join organizations related to your major such as Global Studies Club, Universities Fighting World Hunger, ONE, and/or International Justice Mission.

- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.

- Pursue leadership roles in the student organizations in which you participate.

- Kappa Omicron Nu is a national honor society for the human sciences. If invited, join.

- If given the opportunity, join the Sigma Lota Rho Honor Society.

- Phi Kappa Phi is a national organization that recognizes academic excellence. If invited, you may consider joining.

- Connect with AU alumni and stakeholders to enhance professional opportunities.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Explore Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Attend Study Abroad Fair

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major.

- Set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.

- Begin preparation for your required global internship. Work with your academic advisor and the College of Human Sciences Global Education Office to coordinate your experience.

- Explore the city and company you would like to work for internship placement and post-graduation employment.

- Ask Career Services & Cooperative Education for help in updating your résumé and preparing for job interviews.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.

- Participate in Beat BAMA Food Drive.

- Join organizations related to your major such as Global Studies Club, Universities Fighting World Hunger, ONE, and/or International Justice Mission.

- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.

- Pursue leadership roles in the student organizations in which you participate.

- Kappa Omicron Nu is a national honor society for the human sciences. If invited, join.

- If given the opportunity, join the Sigma Lota Rho Honor Society.

- Phi Kappa Phi is a national organization that recognizes academic excellence. If invited, you may consider joining.

- Connect with AU alumni and stakeholders to enhance professional opportunities.

- Stay in touch with contacts you develop in your global internship and leverage your network for employment.