PATHWAYS | Business Administration

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration

COURSE SELECTION

FRESHMAN
- In BUSI 1010, you will take self-assessments and learn about majors within the Harbert College of Business to begin career planning.

SOPHOMORE
- In BUSI 2010, you will advance your professional skills, polish your resume, develop networking etiquette and prepare for an internship search and interviewing.
- Begin major classes and choose electives that fit your career interest. Enroll in the professional development course for your major to apply the skills gained in previous classes to your job and internship search.

JUNIOR
- Meet with a career coach to begin planning for internship search and interviewing.
- Meet with an academic advisor to outline your plan of study for Pre-Business curriculum.
- Visit OPCD to discuss majors of interest. Meet with a Career Coach in the OPCD to discuss majors of interest and begin planning your internship search for Fall of the junior year.

SENIOR
- Meet with your academic advisor to outline your plan of study for Pre-Business curriculum.
- Visit OPCD to discuss majors of interest.
- Seek opportunities to join Undergraduate Advisory Council and student organizations related to your interests.
- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume.

ASK FOR ASSISTANCE

- Meet with your academic advisor to outline your plan of study for Pre-Business curriculum.
- Visit OPCD to discuss majors of interest.
- Seek opportunities to join Undergraduate Advisory Council and student organizations related to your interests.
- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume.

GAIN EXPERIENCE

- This is the time to look for job shadowing opportunities in your majors of interest.
- Begin thinking about leadership roles in organizations you are currently involved in.
- Attend Fall and Spring Career Fairs.
- This is the time to look for job shadowing opportunities in your majors of interest.
- Seek opportunities to join Undergraduate Advisory Council and student organizations related to your interests.
- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume.

GET INVOLVED

- Follow the Harbert College of Business on Twitter @AUBusiness. Follow the Office of Professional and Career Development on Twitter @AUOPCD
- Join organizations that align with your specific major within the HCOB.
- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest within the university, to attend meetings and enhance your resume.
- Attend Fall and Spring Career Fairs.
- This is the time to look for job shadowing opportunities in your majors of interest.
- Seek opportunities to join Undergraduate Advisory Council and student organizations related to your interests.
- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume.

Career Planning

- Office of Professional & Career Development

- Lowder Hall, home of Harbert College of Business academic advising and the Office of Professional & Career Development.

Special Note:
- These are base salary estimates that do not include jobs that are commission-only or salary-plus-commission.

Career Planning

- Administration Service Manager
  - Minimum Education: B.S.B.A.
  - Entry Level Salary Range: $42.0K - $54.0K

- Sales Manager
  - Minimum Education: B.S.B.A.
  - Entry Level Salary Range: $42.0K - $54.0K

These are just three options out of many that business administration majors pursue. For more career options be sure to check out “What Can I Do With a Major In...” on auburn.edu/career.