Professional & Career Development
Lowder Hall, home of Harbert College of Business

Information Systems Management
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration

---

FRESHMAN
- In BUSI 1010, you will take self-assessments and learn about majors within the Harbert College of Business to begin career planning.
- In BUSI 2010, you will advance your professional skills, polish your resume, develop networking etiquette and prepare for an internship search and interviewing.

SOPHOMORE
- Begin major classes and choose electives that fit your career interest. Enroll in the professional development course for your major to apply the skills gained in previous classes to your job and internship search.
- Meet with a Career Coach in the OPCD to discuss majors of interest and begin planning your internship search for Fall of the junior year.

JUNIOR
- Work through your major classes and continue electives that fit your career interest.
- Meet with a Career Coach in the OPCD to discuss majors of interest and begin planning your internship search for Fall of the junior year.
- Meet with a career coach to begin planning for internship search and interviewing.
- Meet with an academic advisor to complete your graduation check your first semester of senior year.
- Schedule time in the OPCD with a career coach to assist with full-time job search.

SENIOR
- Continue seeking experiences like part-time jobs or job shadowing that will assist you during interviews for full-time employment.
- Obtain an internship for the summer following junior year in your chosen field. Seek out part-time employment opportunities.
- If you are considering earning an MBA, start studying and taking the GMAT.
- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify alumni who could assist you in your job search.

---

Career Planning
Office of Professional & Career Development
101 Lowder Hall | hireharbert.auburn.edu

The information systems management program provides education and training to help lead organizational change projects by transforming and improving business processes.

---

Information Security Analyst
Minimum Education: B.S.B.A.
Entry Level Salary Range: $50.3K - $68.5K

Computer Systems Analyst
Minimum Education: B.S.B.A.
Entry Level Salary Range: $49.8K - $65.3K

Informations Systems Consultant
Minimum Education: B.S.B.A.
Entry Level Salary Range: $50.3K - $68.5K

These are just three options out of many that information systems management majors pursue. For more career options be sure to check out "What Can I Do With a Major In..." on auburn.edu/career.

---

ASK FOR ASSISTANCE
- Meet with your academic advisor to outline your plan of study for Pre-Business curriculum.
- Visit OPCD to discuss majors of interest.

GAIN EXPERIENCE
- Seek opportunities to join Undergraduate Advisory Council and student organizations related to your interests.
- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume.
- This is the time to look for job shadowing opportunities in your majors of interest.
- Begin thinking about leadership roles in organizations you are currently involved in.
- Attend Fall and Spring Career Fairs.
- Obtain an internship for the summer following junior year in your chosen field. Seek out part-time employment opportunities.
- If you are considering earning an MBA, start studying and taking the GMAT.
- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify alumni who could assist you in your job search.

GET INVOLVED
- Follow the Harbert College of Business on Twitter @AUBusiness. Follow the Office of Professional and Career Development on Twitter @AUOPCD
- Check eligibility requirements for the MIS Honor Society, Alpha Iota Delta. Membership is by invitation only so begin working toward academic eligibility requirements.
- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest within the university, to attend meetings and enhance your resume.
- Attend Fall and Spring Career Fairs.
- Obtain an internship for the summer following junior year in your chosen field. Seek out part-time employment opportunities.
- If you are considering earning an MBA, start studying and taking the GMAT.
- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify alumni who could assist you in your job search.
- Continue seeking experiences like part-time jobs or job shadowing that will assist you during interviews for full-time employment.
- Obtain an internship for the summer following junior year in your chosen field. Seek out part-time employment opportunities.
- If you are considering earning an MBA, start studying and taking the GMAT.
- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify alumni who could assist you in your job search.
- Continue seeking experiences like part-time jobs or job shadowing that will assist you during interviews for full-time employment.