French/French International Trade

Bachelor of Arts in French
Bachelor of Arts in French International Trade

COURSE SELECTION

FRESHMAN

- If you have previously studied French, complete an online placement test before registering for classes. [cla.auburn.edu/orlang/resources/placement-test]
- FLFR 1010/1020: Elementary French - Learn basic language skills

SOPHOMORE

- FLFR 2010/2020: Intermediate French - Take your second year of study to review the language concepts and skills learned freshman year.
- FLFR 3010 and above - Take skill-based and content-based classes, in which writing, conversation, pronunciation, French literature, civilization, and history will be the focus.

JUNIOR

- FLFR 4010 and above - Take content courses in which writing, conversation, pronunciation, French literature, civilization, and history will be the focus.
- Take special topics in French.

SENIOR

- FLFR 4010 and above - Take content courses in which writing, conversation, pronunciation, French literature, civilization, and history will be the focus.
- Meet with someone in the University Career Center to explore career options and receive individualized assistance.
- Ask the UCC for help in preparing your résumé and cover letter.

ASK FOR ASSISTANCE

- Be sure that you start your time at Auburn well by regularly meeting with your academic advisor.
- Additionally, all French students can meet with the Undergraduate Program Director anytime during the semester.

GAIN EXPERIENCE

- Use LinkedIn (linkedin.com/alumni) to identify past graduates in your major. Connect with them to set up informational interviews and shadowing opportunities to gain further understanding of your major in the world of work.
- Use Handshake to explore employers actively hiring in your field and search part-time jobs that can add experience to your resume.
- It’s highly recommended that you study abroad for a summer-long or semester-long program.
- Seek out possible internships, undergraduate research opportunities, or study abroad to enhance your undergraduate experience.
- Meet with someone in the University Career Center to explore career options and receive individualized assistance.
- Ask the UCC for help in preparing your résumé and cover letter.

GET INVOLVED

- Many French students join the French Club as well as attend La Table Française, a French conversation table, which is scheduled several times during the semester.
- Additionally, students are encouraged to attend French films.
- Eligible students are encouraged to apply for membership to the French National Honor Society, Pi Delta Phi.
- Utilize AUInvolve (auburn.edu/auinvolve) to identify organizations of interest to attend meetings and enhance your resume.
- If pursuing graduate education, get involved with undergraduate research opportunities.
- Look for leadership opportunities within your organizations to develop practical skills and abilities.

Career Planning

University Career Center
303 Mary Martin Hall | career.auburn.edu

Those pursuing majors in foreign languages find themselves working in all career fields using their language skills. Look to gain experience and skills in addition to your languages to make yourself more marketable.

Department of Foreign Languages & Literatures | 6030 Haley Center | 334.844.4345 | cla.auburn.edu/orlang/french

Interpreter
Minimum Education: B.A.
Entry Level Salary Range: $22.2K-$42.4K

International Trade Specialist
Minimum Education: B.A., M.B.A.
Entry Level Salary Range: $30.0K-$82.8K

These are just three options out of many that French majors pursue. For more career options be sure to check out “What Can I Do With a Major in...” on auburn.edu/career.